B. “Homeless Courses” Group

A meeting is planned for January. It was agreed the Provost should also attend the meeting.

C. Revive Former CPSLL Curriculum Committee

This discussion topic involves two issues: the PSLC rubric created for for-credit courses which no longer has a home (the College of Professional Studies and Lifelong Learning no longer exists), and the issue of the multitude of non-credit courses offered by MSUB Downtown which have no faculty oversight.

D. Degree in a Three Year Period: Fall/Spring/Summer schedule.

The Regents are moving in new directions to reduce cost and time for students, and those directions do not include a three semester/trimester system.

E. Gen Ed Credit Reduction

It was noted that this initiative did not come from Bozeman, but rather our Chancellor.

The meeting adjourned at 4:57 p.m.
