I. ITEM – FIRST READING

Item 52 BMIS 150 Computer Literacy. Change title to Introduction to Cyber Security and change course description.

Brian Gurney, Business Administrationted that BMIS 150 is currently in Gen Ed category I. C. Communication & Information Literactout has not been offered for a whiteney would like to modify the course title, description, and outcomes. Mr. Gurney has taught Introduction to Cyber Secuity as a seminar and it has done well. This course, as modified, would be good for any major on campus, so it is appropriate to Gen Ed.

Brenda Dockery, Business Administration, noted that she is on the High Impact Practices team, and MSUB needs a fresbrelevel high impact course. The modified BMIS 150 would fit that bill perfectly.

It was noted that BMIS 150 Computer Literscopily offered by c (ra)- SD.1 (r)(y)1if (a)t(0)-4 ->e (s)4 ISo

The question was raised as that the students will do in relation to the outcomes of the Gen Ed category. Mr. Gurney responded that the students will do case write ups and the students will be stu

B. Draft Gen Ed Program Learning Outcomes

Ms. Tilton & Dr. Barron stated that rather than ustingse 30 outcomes covering each category, that we use outcomes that cover the whole produsing the rubrics from AAC&U, they presented outcomes which the current categories fit into. Assessment will be through both the ETS Proficiency Profile and appertfolio of signature owks submitted by the student. We would not need to review all of theoertfolios, but rather take a random sample. That said, four of our Gen Ed categories will need a group of faculty to reviewtfelio submissions: History, Fine Arts, Communicatin & Information Literacy, and Cultural Diversity.
